The Law Pathways Textbook p. 56

1. Describe the two common forms of trial in the Middle Ages.

- 2. What was the role of the manor courts?
- 3. Who decided if a person was innocent or guilty in the manor courts?
- 4. What was the most common punishment for a person found guilty in a manor court?
- 5. What was the role of royal courts?

6. Who were the only people who could be tried in Church courts?

7. Explain why Thomas Becket was murdered in 1170.

8. What was King Henry II's punishment for the assassination of Thomas Becket?