

The Need for Reform: Upper Canada

- ⊙ In Canada today, we have a _____ (a government made up of people who are elected by voters)
- ⊙ Our government must act _____ (must please the majority of the people who elected them).

Governments of the Past

- ⊙ During the 1800's, our government was _____ following the _____.
- ⊙ The Governor was appointed so they had little in common with the _____.
- ⊙ _____ created the government in Upper and Lower Canada
- ⊙ The government consisted of the _____, _____, and _____.
- ⊙ The _____ was made up of elected people (democratic).
- ⊙ The Governor and his appointed _____ had more power. They could _____ by the Legislative Assembly.

Grievances in Upper Canada

- ⦿ Colonists complained about problems with _____.
- ⦿ Overpriced land because of _____ and too many _____ caused colonist grief.
- ⦿ Many blamed the _____ (upper class who controlled Upper Canada)
- ⦿ When colonists were surveyed about what life was like in Upper Canada there was major discontent with the government and its policy.
- ⦿ Robert Gourlay created _____.
- ⦿ The government was not interest in their complaints and _____.
- ⦿ The arrest created more opposition to the Family Compact.
- ⦿ _____ took over Gourlay's fight for change in Upper Canada.
- ⦿ Mackenzie started a radical newspaper called the _____.
- ⦿ His paper criticized the government and the Family Compact.
- ⦿ Family Compact reacted by _____.
- ⦿ Mackenzie sued and in 1828 he was elected to the _____.
- ⦿ The ball was now rolling towards the _____.